

The Utah League of Cities and Towns has a complete review of the 2009 General Legislative Session on their web page if you choose to review those on your own. Staff will review just those items that pertain to the Land Use Authority on House & Senate Bills.

